

CMV Folk Weekend

Sponsor an Artist

We are offering businesses and individuals a chance to sponsor one or more of the artists appearing at our upcoming charity CMV Folk Weekend.

What do you get for sponsoring and what are the costs involved?

For your sponsorship, you will receive:

- One VIP ticket for the day your sponsored artist is playing, with full access to all areas
- A signed CD from your chosen artist
- A shout out prior to your artist performing
- Picture opportunity with your artist
- Your name or business name on the official CMV Folk Weekend programme

We have 16 separate artists over 2 days and we expect around 200 people on site at any one time. The event is being filmed for release on YouTube, plus there will be substantial coverage on social media giving you and/or your business maximum exposure

Cost: £125 per artist

Artist	Sponsor
Bev Clarke A Yorkshire lass from Huddersfield who sings and plays the ukulele which she has been perfecting over the last 5 years.	The Black Bull, Langho
Cobalt Tales Fantastic female duo from Yorkshire who both play guitar and sing and will be opening the evening session on Sunday. They will be bringing their new CD after its release at the famous venue, The Greystones in Sheffield at Easter	The Assheton Arms, Downham
Dawn Iverson Travelling up from the South of England, this talented singer songwriter has an acoustic, indie folk feel with touches of Americana.
Elfin Bow - (aka Elizabeth Ann Jones) Elfin Bow is a folk singer, musician, artist and teacher originally from Liverpool and who now lives in North Wales with her singer songwriter husband Gary Edward Jones.
Flossie Mallaivelle. Flossie will also be our MC for the weekend in the concert hall as well as closing the event on the Sunday evening with a performance of song and banter.	Tetrosyl Limited, Rochdale
Fuchia Jones Our youngest but no less talented Welsh lady who regularly plays in the Ruthin folk Club in North Wales is a name to watch out for in the folk scene.
Hazel Rowlands of The Ginjammers. Hazel will be performing and taking the lead with support from her husband on Saturday evening and they will no doubt have folk getting up out of their seats for a jig around.	Hudsons Icecream, Chatburn

CMV Folk Weekend Sponsor an Artist

Jackie Oates An acclaimed fiddle player and singer of traditional ballads and song. Jackie has received various awards with the Radio 2 Folk Awards.	The Black Bull, Chatburn
Jan Hough A resident of Wigan with an amazing talent for playing many instruments which she sings along with. She has been a great supporter of our CMV Folk Weekend.	The Black Bull, Langho
Katie Gallagher (KTG) Hails from across the Irish sea from a town near Dublin where she is a music teacher, plays piano and guitar and is travelling especially to Downham for her first 'festival' overseas. Her trip is timed with the release of her CD.	Fortress Fasteners Ltd, Clitheroe
Karin Grandal-Park A Preston girl who now lives in Burnley can regularly be seen and heard in Settles Golden Lion pubs music sessions.
Katie Spencer An amazing talent from Hull with her soulful voice and distinctive guitar playing, one not to be missed on the Sunday afternoon.	Troy, Burnley
Lucy Ward From Derby, a guitar, mandolin and concertina player who says 'her first instrument is her voice' which is northern, gutsy and beautiful. Lucy was the youngest musician to be nominated for a Radio 2 Folk Award and did indeed win awards in her category.	Sparta Limited, Burnley
Sonny Casey A Yorkshire girl who has lived in Ireland, busking in cities. She has recently visited and performed in France and Spain and is at present showcasing her amazing voice and guitar playing, often performing in bare feet with her individual style.
The Hayes Sisters The sisters come to us from Manchester where they work in the nursing and teaching professions. They are well known for their beautiful harmonies and are not to be missed as they open the afternoon session on Sunday.

For further information, email Linda on cmvfolkweekend@gmail.com or call 07401 629 304